

Middle and Secondary School Inter –House English Elocution Competition 2015 -2016

The Inter House English Elocution Competition for classes 5 to 8 was held on the 8th of October. After many months of hectic practice and grueling auditions it was time to taste the fruits of labour. The competition was tough, exciting and kept the audience either in splits of laughter as 'Hungry Mungry' ate up the United States or reflecting on the expectations some mothers have from their children as they heard 'A Strange Affliction.'

The poem on 'Television' made the students realize how children nowadays had given up reading books because of the 'idiot box'.

'Jingle Gates' brought a smile to every face when they realized that X-mas had now been taken over by Bill Gates.

And so the participants continued to spin their magic and kept every one spellbound with poems that ranged from the humorous to the profound.
